PUBLIC HEARINGS: NONE

OLD BUSINESS: NONE

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Master Plan Draft Review

The draft Master Plan was presented by Justin Sprague and Alex Huff. The following was discussed:

- The new plan is focused on future development and the zoning issues (from the 2012 plan) have been moved to the appendix
- Master Plan Goals have been added to guide the policies and actions of the plan

- Framework is new to the plan that includes neighborhoods, centers, corridors, districts and open space
- Economic Development was highlighted for supporting and growing locally-grown business. It means attracting and retaining talented workers and investing in our residents.
- Marketing Strategy Framework was discussed (remove Beautiful location on Lake Huron)
- Areas of the plan are targeted for Westown and Downtown
- Discussion regarding redevelopment opportunities for various parcels
- Capital Improvement Plan (CIP) will be incorporated with the Master Plan
- Next steps involve Planning Commission feedback, ways to present to public during COVID19, there will be a 63-day review period and during the review period all districts/county/utilities will also review the plan, with public hearings being held possibly in November 2020
- City Manager Nathan Henne asked the board to seriously consider the following before sending to council: public safety building renovations, city wide trash initiative and GAP financing for developments
- Planning Commission Dan Law spoke about using the alleys behind the Westown businesses for public as opposed to reduce M-21 down to 3 lanes
- Secretary Fear asked about updating the Census numbers in the plan but the new Census won't be out until 2022
- Justin Sprague stated the plan is about 75% complete to go public but still need the Action and Implementation plan completed.
- Planning Commission members are to review further and get comments to Justin Sprague and Alex Huff within 2 weeks so a new draft can be presented at the September meeting

OTHER BOARD BUSINESS:

For the next few meetings, the board will be reviewing the Master Plan, recreational marijuana and the 5 new additional licenses, and a sample chicken ordinance (to allow chickens in the city). A sample chicken ordinance will be presented at the next meeting.
